THE BUILD IMAGINATION COLLECTION includes books about architecture, art, color, Legos, graphic design, shapes, and famous landmarks.

MADE POSSIBLE WITH A GENEROUS DONATION from the Rae Dumke Development Fund of the Michigan Architectural Foundation, this collection features fiction and non-fiction books on topics that help foster children's imaginations and raise awareness about architecture.

ABOUT RAE DUMKE:
Rae Dumke was a leader and pioneer in efforts to promote architecture and architects. She served as the Executive Director of the American Institute of Architects - Michigan, the American Institute of Architects - Detroit, and the Michigan Architectural Foundation from 1984 until her retirement in 2010. In recognition of her outstanding contributions to the profession of Architecture at the local, state, and national levels of the American Institute of Architects (AIA), she was granted Honorary Membership by its national organization in 1990. Upon her retirement, the Michigan Architectural Foundation established a dedicated Endowment Fund to honor Rae's legacy of service. The Mission of the Endowment is to promote architecture to the public at large.
