

The Rae Dumke Collection of 100 Essential Architecture Books was developed by a Michigan Architectural Foundation (MAF) committee in 2014 and features fiction and non-fiction books about architecture. The mission of the Rae Dumke Fund is to promote architecture to the public. Ms. Rae Dumke is the former Executive Director of MAF, AIA Michigan (American Institute of Architects Michigan), and AIA Detroit.

The members of the selection committee were Alan Cobb, Albert Kahn Associates; Rae Dumke, Honorary AIA; Doug Koschik, Baldwin Library; Jeffrey Ryntz, Saroki Architecture; Michelle Saroki, Saroki Architecture; and Stephen Smith, TMP Architecture. Titles were suggested by architects and other people around the country. Through an endowment fund set up with the Baldwin Public Library Trust, this collection was purchased for and will be housed at Baldwin, with the understanding that the books will be available not only to Baldwin cardholders, but also nationwide through interlibrary loan. The collection is updated on a regular basis.
