

BUILD IMAGINATION

FEATURING BOOKS ABOUT ARCHITECTURE AND BUILDING.

Made possible with a generous donation from the Rae Dumke Fund of the Michigan Architecture Foundation (MAF), the Build Imagination collection features fiction and non-fiction books on topics that help foster children's imaginations and raise awareness about architecture. The collection includes books about architecture, construction, civil engineering, art, color, shapes, graphic design, Legos, Minecraft, and famous landmarks for babies through 6th grade.

ABOUT RAE DUMKE FUND:

Rae Dumke was a leader and pioneer in efforts to promote architecture and architects. She served as the Executive Director of the American Institute of Architects - Michigan, the American Institute of Architects - Detroit, and the Michigan Architectural Foundation from 1984 until her retirement in 2010.

Upon her retirement, the Michigan Architectural Foundation established a dedicated Endowment Fund to honor Rae's legacy of service. The mission of the Endowment is to promote architecture to the public.
